unauthorised colonies in Delhi which had come up before March 31, 1993. Soon thereafter, a public interest writ petition was filed by the Common Cause in the Delhi High Court against this proposal/ recommendations. The High Court, in its interim orders, stayed action or decision by the Government for regularising these colonies.

On the directions of the Court, a High Powered Committee headed by Secretary, Ministry of Urban Development was constituted to go into the entire gamut of issue on unauthorised colonoes. On the basis of the report of this Committee, the High Court asked the Government to submit its view to the Court in respect of regularisation of the Colonies and the terms and conditions on which such regularisation could be done. After consulting all the local authorities including the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi, a draft proposal was prepared. This proposal was sent to Delhi Government and the Government of Delhi conveyed its agreement to the draft proposal in October, 1999. Thereafter, the Government of Indian formulated its views and these views are being submitted to the High Court through an affidavit. The High Court, aftet considering these views and holding further proceedings in the matter, will take appropriate decision. The Government will take further action in accordance with the directions orders of the High Court.
